Fraser Coast Women in Development International Women's Day Luncheon

Raising Mummy Boys in the Nanny State

The Women in Development Fraser Coast Committee are proud to present guest speaker, Nancy Bates.

Nancy was for 20 years editor of the Fraser Coast Chronicle and known for her provocative, challenging views. She was the first woman editor of a daily newspaper in Queensland and the second in Australia. On her retirement 18 months ago she was described in Queensland Parliament as an Australian newspaper legend and trailblazer who pulled no punches.
